BECOME a CONSULTANT

1. Order your kit: There are two kits for $300, (one is jewelry only and the other is 70% jewelry and 30% hair accessories), then a $700 one, and two more up from there. If you can't really do the $300 kit, you can pay a $40 enrollment fee and then pick out your own merchandise at a later time as you can afford it. The benefit of getting a kit is it includes bags, hooks for displaying, invitations for your hostess, a jewelry repair kit, etc. Most consultants make that money back plus some at their very first open house!

2. Once your kit (inventory) arrives, call a few friends or family (I had 4 come) and let them have first pick of your inventory! They'll be so excited to have first dibs! They will then call their friends and before you know it; your inventory is nearly gone!

3. Next, host your own Open House. This way people can "tie the inventory to your house." I have several phone calls throughout the week where people want to come to my house and pick up something last minute. They usually bring a friend or relative with them, too. You'll especially want people to know that they can call you or stop by for those last minute Christmas & birthday gifts.

4. After your open house, you'll definitely need to replace and start building up your inventory because you've just booked some shows!! Just buy what you can, don't feel like you have to break the pocketbook. A lot of people just pay themselves back for the cost of their kit and then, take 1/2 of the commission to buy more items, and deposit the other 1/2. That way you're still making money, but building your inventory as well.

5. Have shows! You'll earn a 45% commission with Paparazzi!! As a consultant, you purchase the items at wholesale $2.75 an item, but then they charge $5 for that item. You will also get people who want to join the Paparazzi Team. You would sign up these consultants and help guide them and coach them to success. With one active consultant signed up under you you receive 5% commission off of what they order. Once you get 3 active consultants signed up you receive 10% of whatever your downline orders.

Feel free to visit www.paparazziaccessories.com. Click on Opportunities then scroll down to the bottom to read more. There are not very many consultants right now so it is a great time to join and build your downline. This company has only been open to consultants since January of 2011 of this year!! I would love to have you on my team and help you build up your business. This really is awesome and honestly, so easy! It sells itself, because who doesn't love fabulous, trendy jewelry and hair accessories for only $5!!!

Feel free to call me or text me anytime with questions about signing up!
